his trip to Washington failed to produce the desired employment for the reasons stated in the enclosed letter.

STAT

As noted, feels that his age should not distract from his employability and that more emphasis should be placed upon his professional experience. Perhaps it would be helpful if you could elaborate more fully on your hiring practices and policies with respect to the recruitment of new employees and the specific employment interests of my constituent with your agency.

Thank you for whatever information and assistance you may be able to provide.
